

CODY CARR'S HUNTING ADVENTURES, L.L.C.

www.HuntWithCody.com

Hello from Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures!

We want to start by thanking all of the guides and clients of the 2019 season! None of this would have happened without you!

2019- Spring bear season was fantastic with great color phases and large boars were harvested. Our bear population is amazing! The burns in our permit area have been greening up and pulling the animals into these areas the last few years! The elk rut this year happened during the full moon and windy conditions but we still managed to have great opportunity and good success. The rifle hunts were up and down this year with fog and wind effecting the early hunts. The later hunts were effected with lack of new snow and the existing remaining snow was crunchy. However as you can see in this Harvest Report we did manage to harvest good amount of deer and elk! Our mountain lion hunts were and are currently amazing with high success! We put together a great team and are offering a new wolf hunt / trap adventure for 2020!

2020 is looking promising with a mild winter and good retention on our deer and elk herds! If looking for hunting gear go to outfittergearlist.com!
