

Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC Participant Release of Liability, Waiver of Claims, Assumption of Risks and Indemnity Agreement for Hunting Services (1)

In consideration of the services of Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC its respective agents, owners, lessors, contractors, holding companies, shareholders, officers, volunteers, participants, employees, and all other persons or entities acting in any capacity on its behalf (hereinafter collectively referred to as Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC), I hereby agree to the following acknowledgements and to discharge Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC on behalf of myself, my parents, my children, my heirs, assigns, personal representatives and estate as follows:

1. Inherent Risks: I acknowledge that the following describes some, but not all, of the risks that I might encounter while at Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC, facilities or permitted operations or while participating in activities at or through Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC, I acknowledge that activities like hunting entail known, unknown and unanticipated risks that could result in physical or emotional injury, death, or damage to myself, to property, or to third parties. I understand and acknowledge that the enjoyment and excitement of this type of activity is derived in part from inherent risks created by activity beyond the accepted safety of life at home or in my normal day to day activities and that these inherent risks contribute to my enjoyment and excitement and are an integral reason for my participation in this activity. I understand that such risks simply cannot be eliminated without jeopardizing the essential qualities of the activities of this type of experience.

Hunting: I acknowledge all hunts are physically demanding due to the rugged and often steep mountainous terrain or open country. Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC has explained to me that the wild and native animals rarely live in easy to access areas; I understand that a typical day hunting involves hiking or riding early in the day to the hunting area and not returning to the base camp until the sun goes down. I acknowledge that even when not riding, hiking will not mean walking on flat ground, but will often be on rocky and/or steep inclines. I know and understand that having a successful and safe hunt depends upon my own physical abilities and conditioning. I understand and acknowledge that over-exertion, illness or being sore from hiking/riding are risks associated with this activity. Depending on the terrain/topography and the type of animal, shots may be at close or long range and I acknowledge that the most successful hunters are the ones that are practiced and can adapt to the shot that is presented. I acknowledge that hunting also has inherent risks which include, but are not limited to, being killed or hurt or killing or harming another participant by using firearms or bows or hunting gear such as knives, ammunition, bows and arrows, etc. I may encounter the actual animals being hunted or other forms of wildlife and may be attacked or harmed.

Horseback Riding: I specifically acknowledge that horseback riding is classified as a RUGGED ADVENTURE OR RECREATIONAL ACTIVITY, and there are numerous obvious and non-obvious inherent risks always present in such activities despite all safety precautions. I agree and acknowledge that the term HORSE herein shall refer to all equine species and the term(s) HORSEBACK RIDING OR RIDING herein shall refer to riding or otherwise handling of horses, ponies, mules, or donkeys, whether from the ground or while mounted on the animal. The term RIDER shall herein refer to a person who rides a horse mounted or otherwise handles or comes near a horse from the ground. Per this document, I acknowledge being advised that, according to NEISS (National Electronic Injury Surveillance Systems of United States Consumer Products) horse activities rank 64th among the activities of people relative to injuries that result in a hospital stay; related injuries can be severe, requiring more hospital days and resulting in more lasting residual effects than injuries in other activities. I also understand and acknowledge that failing to use or properly use safety type equipment such as protective headgear increases my risk of injury or of not surviving an accident or incident while horseback riding. I understand that riding is strenuous and I may experience soreness and/or fatigue even on a short ride.

I understand and acknowledge the fact that no horse is a completely safe horse; horses are 5 to 15 times larger, 20 to 40 times more powerful, and 3 to 4 times faster than a human. If a rider falls from horse to ground, it will generally be at a distance of 3-6 feet, and the impact may result in injury to the rider. I understand and acknowledge that horseback riding is the only sport where one much smaller, weaker predator animal (human) tries to impose its will on, and become a unit of movement with another much larger stronger prey animal with a mind of its own (horse) and each has a limited understanding of the other. I understand and acknowledge that if a horse is frightened or provoked it may divert from its training and act according to its natural survival instincts which may include, but are not limited to: stopping short; changing directions or speed at will, shifting its weight, bucking, rearing, kicking, biting, or running from danger. I understand that horses are like any other gaited animal in that they may trip, stumble or fall, all of which may cause harm to me or other persons or animals. I understand that riders should not carry loose items while riding (IE binoculars, hats not fastened securely, etc.) that may fall, blow away, flap in the wind or make sharp noises that could frighten the horse; riders should not yell or scream or make other sharp noises that could scare the horse. I understand and acknowledge that saddle girths (saddle fasteners around the horse's belly) may come loose and cause saddle slipping; in the event I notice mine or another rider's saddle slipping it will be my responsibility to notify the guide/wrangler immediately to get assistance in re-securing the saddle. I understand and acknowledge that, upon mounting a horse and taking up the reins the RIDER is in primary control of the horse; as such, my safety as the rider largely depends upon my ability to carry out simple instructions and upon my ability to remain balanced aboard a moving animal which will be traveling over rocky, uneven and sometimes steep terrain. I also understand and acknowledge that Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC is NOT responsible for acts, occurrences or elements of nature (IE thunder, lightening, rain, wind, wild and domestic animals, insects or reptiles that may run, fly near, bite and/or sting a horse or person and/or irregular footing on out-of-door groomed or wild terrain) that can scare a horse, cause it to fall or cause it to react in some other unsafe way.

Camping: The inherent risks associated with general sightseeing and living in camp or wilderness type settings during this multi day trip also include, but are not limited to: slipping or falling during camp activities. I understand that the areas in which I might hike in general (whether hunting or not...) sometimes hide dangerous obstacles such as tree wells, tree stumps, creeks, rocks and boulders, slippery streams, muskeg, forest dead fall, poisonous or noxious plants, etc. I specifically acknowledge that the inherent risks associated with lodging in tents may feel different than a normal building and may include areas of low head room, small or cramped spaces, etc., all of which may feel unnatural and cause me to become disoriented or trip or fall; tents are particularly subject to issues related to inclement weather, temperature variations and wildlife attacks.

Food Preparation: I acknowledge that food preparation is an integral part of this activity and that I and other participants may be assisting in food preparations; some of the food may not be to my liking; there may be errors in food storage or preparation that could cause my dissatisfaction and or illness; I acknowledge my responsibility to inform Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC of any specific food related allergies and I acknowledge that Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC cannot be responsible for allergies, illness or diseases related to meals and food preparation. I acknowledge that the camping and traveling lifestyle will require me to use equipment that I might not be familiar with and may require me to interact with other guests and participants with whom I am also unfamiliar; both of these things can cause my discomfort and stress and have inherent risks. I acknowledge that there are numerous other issues I may encounter, such as campfires and latrine issues which, while they seem open and obvious, also have inherent risks associated with them.

Common Carrier: I acknowledge that Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC is not a Common Carrier but rather is in the business of providing outdoor recreation activities. Transportation to and from activities is incidental to the activity. Transport by car, bus or van travel in some instances may be provided by Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC and/or Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC employees and may involve errors in judgment by Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC or staff operating the vans, buses, cars or other type transport vehicles. The vehicles and transport trailers may malfunction, break down or be poorly maintained, causing injury, accidents, delays or in the extreme case, death. Transport may be provided by independent contractors to Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC and may involve errors in judgment by those independent contractors.

I acknowledge that, in the remote locations used by Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC participants may experience extreme environmental and/or weather conditions. Exposure to the natural elements can be uncomfortable and/or harmful and I am aware that this exposure could cause sunburn, dehydration, heat exhaustion, heat stroke, heat cramps or fatigue, some or all of which may diminish my or the other participants ability to react or respond. Delays or inconvenience because of inclement weather, including but not limited to low visibility, high winds, heavy rain or snow, extreme temperature variations, etc., can occur. Participants may encounter dangerous wildlife or insects and may encounter firearms or substances necessary to the control of these animals or insects.

By signing this Participant Release of Liability, Waiver of Claims, Assumption of Risks and Indemnity Agreement, I acknowledge that I AM ULTIMATELY RESPONSIBLE for my own safety during this Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC hunting trip. Furthermore, Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC Guides have difficult jobs to perform. They seek safety, but they are not infallible. They might be ignorant of a participant's fitness or abilities. They might misjudge the weather, the elements, or the terrain. They may give inadequate warnings or instructions and/or I as the participant may fail to understand the safety directions due to language issues. Further, I may encounter: the negligence or mis-behaviors of other visitors or participants who may be present, participants giving or following inappropriate advice, mine or others' failure to follow the rules of Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC and/or my own negligence or inexperience, some or all of which may diminish my or the other participants' ability to react or respond. I also acknowledge that I have the responsibility to inspect any and all facilities or equipment to be used and to immediately advise Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC of anything which I consider to be unsafe or to refuse to participate. With knowledge of all of these issues:

10. Forum Selection, Severability, Breach of Contract/Warranty Waiver, Etc: In the event I file a lawsuit against Cody Carr's Hunting Adventures, LLC I agree to do so solely in the State of Montana, and I further agree that the substantive law of that state shall apply in that action without regard to the conflict of law rules of that state and I hereby irrevocably waive any other jurisdiction or venue to which I or my estate or my children's estates might otherwise have be entitled.
